By signing this document, I affirm that a valid liability insurance for pet owners and an anti-rabies inoculation for the registered dog exists. Participation is on one's own risk. I obligate myself to pay the entry fee also if I should be prevented from the participation for any reason.

Of course, it is commonly known by the participants that before, during and after the event the dogs must be kept and treated in accordance with the rules of animal welfare which includes also the preparation for the event without any force or any other impact on the dog which is contrary to the rules of animal welfare. In case of infringement through participants and/or third parties the concerned dog is immediately suspended from the event and further action against the acting member is taken.

By signing and sending the entry form I confirm that none of the listed persons is member in a competitive breed club for the same breed or in a cynologic association which is neither a VDH or FCI member. By transfer of the entry form I accept the decision of the judge.

I am aware of that the personal data in the entry form is handled and forwarded to the responsible regional group and the SV for the purposes of registration and realization of the character assessment. Publication of the results takes place in the publications of the club and the homepage of the hosting local group, the responsible regional group and the online data base "SV DOxS".

Furthermore, we would like to point out that during the event photos are taken for the purpose of reporting, public relations and documentation. Those photos will be published in the club publications and web pages of the organizing local group. Legality is given by Art. 6 Abs. 1 Lit. b und f DSGVO and the "Kunsturhebergesetz".

Further information about data privacy in the Verein für Deutsche Schäferhunde (SV) e.V. can be found on:
